How to contact our Board of Directors

Employees, clients or members of the public who have concerns about our employees, policies, procedures or programs are strongly encouraged to contact agency management by telephoning (414) 874-2560. Ask to speak to the Chief Executive Officer. If the CEO is not available, then ask for any other member of the Executive Team. Every effort will be made to resolve your concern to your satisfaction.

Whistleblowers or individuals with unsatisfied grievances may contact our agency's Board of Directors by sending a message to this e-mail address:

BoardMHYH@GMail.com

Anonymous comments --

If you wish to disguise your identity when you e-mail the Board of Directors, you may do so by creating a free and anonymous e-mail account with a provider such as Yahoo.com or GMail.com. Create an e-mail address that does not hint at your identity. You can contact our Board from that new e-mail address.

Please go back and check that new e-mail address periodically. It is possible that the Board will seek additional information from you.

Non-anonymous comments --

If you wish to disclose your identity, you may use your regular e-mail address and also include your name, telephone number or other identifying information.
